The net debt of the County December 31, 1899, was $9,840.83; December 31, 1900, it was $7,009.10, showing a reduction for the year 1900 of $2,831.73.

It will be noticed that, according to the report of the Superintendent of the County Farm, that the cost of the maintenance of the Farm has increased during the past two years. This is due to two causes: increase in the number of inmates, and also to the fact that there are now no inmates capable of doing much work on the Farm; and for this reason the item for labor has increased. But it will be also noticed that the amount paid for support of paupers away from the Farm has decreased, so that the amount paid for the support of the Farm and for outside paupers, taken together, is less for the past year than for some previous years.

During the past year a building has been built at the County Farm, to be used as a wood and carriage house, costing $627.41, and a piece of land has been bought, at a cost of $200.00, for the purpose of getting a greater supply of water in the reservoir. Necessary repairs have been made in the Court House to the amount of $536.01.

The County Farm and Almshouse are still under the charge of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meloon, with the same corps of assistants. The visiting committee of the State Board of Charities, in their last report say: "The Carroll County Almshouse is one of the cleanest in the State, there was absolutely no odor whatever anywhere. The whole place is much improved since Mr. and Mrs. Meloon went there."

There was also entered upon the Equity Docket by order of Court at the October term, 1900, the following specified libels that had been previously filed by me against whiskey, and other intoxicating liquors, and the articles containing the same, in which the following orders and proceedings have hitherto been made and had.

State v. lager beer and barrels of Geo. H. Clifford. Default. Decree of forfeiture. Ezekial B. Andrews appointed to examine liquor and report to Court. Officer ordered to deliver forfeited articles to County Commissioners. Warrant issued.

State v. lager beer, barrels, etc., of George H. Clifford. Default. Decree of forfeiture. Ezekial B. Andrews appointed to examine liquor and report to Court. Officer ordered to deliver forfeited articles to County Commissioners. Warrant issued.

State v. lager beer, whiskey, etc., of Hayes L. Whiting. Case reserved. Officer ordered to put liquor and other articles in hands of County Commissioners to hold during pendency of suit.

State v. wine, bottles and casks of Edward Butler. Default. Decree of forfeiture. Ezekial B. Andrews appointed to examine liquors and report to Court. Officer ordered to deliver forfeited articles to County Commissioners. Warrant issued.

I desire in this annual report to call special attention to the provisions of Sec. 1, Chap. 31, Session Laws of 1899, in which the moiety clause was repealed in cases of liquor prosecutions, except in cases in which a city or town through its officers institute and carry on the prosecutions at the expense of such city or town for the violation of any of the provisions of Chapter 112 of the Public Statutes, or amendments thereto, relative to the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors; and I would further herein respectfully and earnestly invite the attention of the citizens of the county to the statutory provisions contained in Sec. 23 of Chap. 112 of the Public Statutes, wherein it is enacted that "The mayors of cities and the selectmen of towns shall prosecute, at the expense of the city or town, every person guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of Chapter 112, or amendments thereto, of which they can obtain reasonable proof; and if any mayor, or selectman shall neglect or refuse to perform his duty as specified in this section he shall be fined or forfeit three hundred dollars for each and every such neglect or refusal."

A more common reliance upon and enforcement of the provisions of Sec. 31 of said last named chapter of the Public Statutes I would also recommend, wherein it is provided, as many may not be aware, that "The husband, wife, parent, child, brother, sister, or other near relative, guardian, or employer of any person who has the habit of drinking spirituous liquor to excess, may give notice in writing, by him or her signed, to any person not to furnish spirituous liquor to the person who has such habit; and if the person so notified shall furnish any spirituous liquor, for a consideration or otherwise, to the person who has such habit, within one year after such notice, the person giving the notice may recover of the person so notified, in an action on the case, not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, which may be assessed by the jury as damages. Any married woman may bring such action in her own name, and recover the damages to her own use."

The practice of sending or delivering to solicitors a list of names of unreliable persons, much addicted often to the excessive use of intoxicating liquors, with request that they be summoned as witnesses against rumsellers and that the names of the complainants be withheld, who remain at home, has not the approval as a rule of the present very able Attorney General of the state, or that of myself from long experience, and will not ordinarily receive my sanction or encouragement. Such an ineffectual method of procedure, if followed, would strongly tend to create useless expense, and would often be a very fruitful source of unjust and abusive complaints, and unreasonable, groundless assertions against solicitors, grand juries, and all other persons that should happen to sustain any relation to such proceedings in liquor prosecutions.

It is therefore very strongly and urgently recommended as a general rule for all communities which desire and endeavor to institute criminal prosecutions against persistent violators of the statutes, enacted for the suppression of intemperance, to see that some reliable citizen or citizens among them attend the sessions of the Court with the witnesses.

It is also deemed very desirable for all persons who may have very important or complicated matters to present to the grand jury, to see, when practicable, and confer with the Solicitor sometime previous to the commencement of the term of Court at which they propose to appear.

The county is not party to any of the civil actions.

Very respectfully,

JOSIAH H. HOBBS,

Solicitor of Carroll County.

PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

TO THE COMMISSIONERS OF CARROLL COUNTY:

As Physician to Carroll County Almshouse, I would report as follows:

The large number of deaths during the past year can be accounted for as follows: (1) There were eight (8) of the number who died within a week of their admission to the Almshouse. (2) There were nine (9) who had reached the age of 80 years and above, while two others were 70 years and 77 years respectively.

The epidemic of influenza made its usual ravages by way of death to some, while those who escaped death did so with vital organs weakened and unable to successfully resist other diseases.

We feel that a room fitted up especially for a "sick-room" and such surgical conveniences as are necessary, would be a great advantage to all concerned.

Respectfully submitted,
E. B. ANDREWS, M. D.
